What Is Frances Haddon Morgan Center?

The Frances Haddon Morgan Center (FHMC) provides individualized services and supports for adults with autism and related developmental disabilities to promote maximum growth, independence and self-determination. FHMC is a state and federally funded residential facility operated by the Department of Social and Health Services, Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD). FHMC is located in a residential area in west Bremerton.

What Is Respite Care?

Respite is a planned, short-term relief for individuals, families and caregivers. Respite services include residential care, social, recreational and community activities as well as 24 hour supervision by qualified professionals, for one to two weeks at a time. Respite may also be arranged for professional evaluations and consultations. Services available according to each individual's needs may include:

- Medical and psychiatric evaluation and treatment
- Nursing assessment and care
- Speech therapy and communication training
- Behavior consultations
- Occupational therapy
- Physical therapy
- Recreation and leisure activities

How Do I Find Out More?

Individuals who are receiving services from DDD are usually eligible for respite care.

Respite care services must be coordinated in advance with a DDD case resource manager in the DSHS region where the person resides. Contact your DDD case resource manager to discuss whether respite care is right for you.
